It Is the Large Hat or the Small Hat This Season

—That has the greatest demand, rather than the medium style.

At $10, $12.50 and $15

—We are showing a great many of the large picture shapes of fine velvets, in two-toned effects—that is, with the hat of black velvet and the facings, which are often of Georgette crepe, in a light contrasting color, and the ostrich feather tip or other trimming to match the facing.

—Others are trimmed with small flowers, carrying a note of summer into late fall, and incidentally making a charming combination.

—Where all are so attractive and scarcely two alike it is difficult to give a description that does them justice. Come and see them for yourself.
